

Project: Elm Drive Landscaping

Phase 1: Fall 2004 - The Institute of Ecosystem Studies graciously donated four mature ash trees to the Millbrook school district. IES Gardens and Grounds Manager Brad Roeller arranged for the donation of the trees and supervised the transplanting.

Project: Elm Drive Landscaping

Phase 2: Summer 2005: The entrance of Elm Drive was re-landscaped with boxwood and viburnum. The Joseph and Robert Rizzo families donated a bench in memory of their nephew, Robert Clouting.

